Indecent Sex Crime Exhibits Shown by Police in Berlin

BERLIN, Oct. 5 (By U. P.).—Alleged indecent exhibits of sexual crime at the international police exposition may bring Berlin police heads before the bar of justice.
Berlin is flocking to the exposition, which at the present time is the biggest attraction in the capital.
Tens of thousands of the inquisitive have gained access to the displays, according to the newspaper, Welt am Montag, which says that legal procedure may be instituted against the police for dangerously exciting the imagination of immature visitors, who may be influenced improperly.

Simpson Checks Up Hall Murder

oned on Alcatraz Island, California.
That, at least, is the aparent background for Senator Simpson's demand that the trials be delayed until November 3.

Check-up on Beekman

Meanwhile, the senator already has started to check up on the work done by the late Mr. Beekman. Miss Charlotte Southwick, employed by the Calco Chemical Company in Bound Brook, N. J., and George Algear, an attorney, were questioned personally by the fiery little prosecutor. Miss Southwick was formerly secretary to Mr. Beekman, and Mr. Algear, in 1923, was a clerk in the late prosecutor's office.

"Neither had anything of importance to add to the case," an investigator declared, after they had been questioned. Reporters talked to both after Senator Simpson had visited them. They declared they had seen Dickman in the office frequently, but denied that Carpenter had ever visited Mr. Beekman.

Says She Will Keep Silent

Miss Sally Peters, friend of Mrs. Hall, who accompanied her to Italy after the first investigation closed, also refused to tell what she knew of the murder. She is living at Craigmere, N. Y., near Middletown, and investigators who interviewed her there reported that she was determined to remain silent at all costs.

The decks are being cleared for court action tomorrow in the bribery investigation, when Senator Simpson is expected to appear before Common Pleas Judge Frank Cleary in Somerville to request four indictments for persons who will be charged with being accessories to the murder after the fact. One of these persons is a woman, it was said.

State investigators denied she is Mrs. Minna Clark, who with Ralph V. Gorsline is believed to have spied on the Rev. Hall when he went on his nocturnal expeditions with Mrs. Mills. Mrs. Clark is at her home, and is reported to be quite ill. At the same time, denials were made that a prominent politician is mixed up in the case and that Joseph H. Porter, banker, knew anything of the actual murder.

BLUE SKY LAW VALID

ALBANY, Oct. 5.—The constitutionality of the Marain blue sky law was attacked in the Court of Appeals by Ernest F. Dunham, New York broker, to restrain Attorney General Ottinger from conducting a hearing at which he was required to produce papers. Justice Rosch in the Supreme Court held the law constitutional.
